

The distance between the letter M and other characters is too small and the distance between the letter W and other characters is too large when we use the MS-Office add-in to generate PDF files starting from Excel. This phenomenon is not present in the PDF-XChange printerdriver. It is only the case with characters with a size of less than 10.

Probably it has to do with font-kerning.
Can you please have a look at this ?